

7-day N3 Japanese vocab master bootcamp
Day 4 Vocabulary with sentences
English

Day4

61. 効果 (こうか) Effect

If you continue exercising every day, you will see results.

If there is no effect, I think it's better to try another method.

62. 故障する (こしょうする) To breakdown

The elevator is currently broken, so I have to use the stairs.

They will fix broken items for free here.

63. 対象 (たいしょう) Target

I created this event targeted at men in their 20s.

If the target is Japanese people, I think you'll need to write the explanation in Japanese.

64. 余裕 (よゆう) To afford to do / spare time / Leeway

I'm busy, but I still have some spare time, so I can help.

I have some leeway with money this month, so I plan to buy new shoes.

65. 満足する (まんぞくする) To satisfy

I am very satisfied with the service at this hotel.

Having money doesn't mean you can be satisfied with your life.

66. 節約する (せつやくする) To save money / To save resources

I used the money I saved to travel to Japan.

It's not good to save too much, but I think it's better not to buy things you don't need.

67. 地域 (ちいき) Region

Cultures are really different depending on the region.

The vegetables grown in the region where I live are always delicious.

68. もったいない Wasteful

It feels wasteful to throw away clothes I don't need, so I always donate them.

I think it's a waste of time to look at Instagram every night.

69. 挑戦する (ちょうせんする) To challenge oneself / To attempt

I'm thinking of challenging myself with a new job.

You won't know if you can succeed unless you try.

70. 企業 (きぎょう) Enterprise

I'm thinking of joining the internship program at that company.

The president of this company is young and seems to be creating a good working environment.

71. 感情 (かんじょう) Emotion

I think it's difficult to control emotions well.

Once your emotions settle down, let's talk again.

72. 電池 (でんち) Battery

Let's buy a new battery before this one runs out.

If the battery types are different, it might not work, so please be careful.

73. 環境 (かんきょう) Environment

It's important to separate trash for disposal to protect the environment.

It might take time to get used to the new environment.

74. 洪水 (こうずい) Flood

Many ambulances are coming to the area affected by the flood.

It seems that the trains are delayed due to the flood.

75. 宗教 (しゅうきょう) Religion

Culture and customs differ depending on the religion.

I was interested in religion, so I decided to study it at university.

76. どうやら Apparently

Apparently, he no longer lives in this town.

Apparently, that event isn't going well.

77. 手続き (てつづき) Procedure / Paperwork

It's better to prepare all the necessary documents for the procedure in advance.

Once the paperwork is done, have someone double-check it.

78. 技術 (ぎじゅつ) Technology

I think this technology will also be useful for protecting the environment.

With new technology, I think we can work more efficiently.

79. 渋滞 (じゅうたい) Traffic jam

If the traffic jam is bad, taking the train might get you there faster.

I plan to leave home early today to avoid traffic jams.

80. 交差点 (こうさてん) Intersection

There was an accident at that intersection, so the road is congested.

If you cross the intersection and turn right, there's a park right there.