

7-day N3 Japanese vocab master bootcamp
Day 1 Vocabulary with sentences
English

Day1

1. お宅 (おたく) Someone's house (Polite)

Your house seems larger than mine.

I brought flowers to the house where they just moved in.

2. 先日 (せんじつ) The other day

The shop I went to the other day has released a new menu.

I received a letter from the person I met the other day.

3. 具合 (ぐあい) Condition

It seems my condition got better after taking this medicine.

I'm not really feeling sick, but I'm a bit tired.

4. 機会 (きかい) Opportunity

If I get the opportunity to go to Japan, I'd like to visit.

Not everyone gets the same opportunity.

5. さっぱり Not at all / Completely (Used with negative)

This problem is too difficult, I don't understand it at all.

I haven't cleaned my room because I've been busy lately, so it's not clean at all.

6. 程度 (ていど) Extent / Degree

This book has content that even children can read.

I think it's difficult to find a job in Japan unless your Japanese is at a certain level.

7. 丈夫 (じょうぶ) Strong / Durable

It's better for hiking boots to be durable.

This bag is durable, so it won't break even if I put heavy things in it.

8. 当然 (とうぜん) Naturally / Of course

Naturally, I thought he would pass the exam.

Of course, I think this project will be successful.

9. 相変わらず (あいかわらず) As usual

Work is as busy as usual, and I don't have any free time.

As usual, she's very fashionable.

10. 予想する (よそうする) To predict / To anticipate

The result of the exam was better than I expected, so I'm happy.

I anticipate that work will be busy next week, so I want to relax this weekend.

11. 以降 (いこう) Since / After

I'm free after 8 PM today.

The new project will start after August.

12. いわゆる So-called

I think he's the so-called "genius."

The so-called famous author has released a new book.

13. 確かに (たしかに) Surely / Certainly

Certainly, this restaurant was expensive, but it was really delicious.

I'm certainly busy, but I always try to make time for my wife.

14. 仲間 (なかま) Companion

He's a companion I've spent a long time with.

This project won't succeed unless we cooperate with our companions.

15. 時期 (じき) Time / Period

Thank you for coming to my house, even though it's such a busy time.

Traveling during this time is a bit expensive.

16. 徐々に (じょじょに) Gradually / Step by step

I'm gradually getting used to the new job.

My Japanese is gradually improving, but it's not perfect yet.

17. 変更する (へんこうする) To change

I'm not sure yet whether we'll change the event's time.

Due to the typhoon, the date of the trip was changed.

18. 叫ぶ (さけぶ) To shout / To scream

There were too many people, and even though she shouted, I couldn't hear her.

My friend ran over, shouting something happily.

19. 扱う (あつかう) To handle / To deal with

This store handles various types of books.

How we handle that issue is very important.

20. 甘やかす (あまやかす) To spoil

Being kind and spoiling someone is different.

I think it's not good to spoil children too much.