

7-day N3 Japanese vocab master bootcamp
Day 5 Vocabulary with sentences
English

Day5

81. 症状 (しょうじょう) Symptoms

I was told that I shouldn't come to work until the symptoms of COVID-19 are cured.

This medicine seems to be effective for cold symptoms.

82. 借金 (しゃっきん) Debt

I think life becomes difficult when you have debt.

Once I finish paying off my debt, I will be able to live a more free life.

83. 提出する (ていしゅつする) To submit

There are many documents I need to submit for my Japanese visa.

If the submission is delayed, it might not be accepted.

84. 目立つ (めだつ) To stand out

She always tries not to stand out in class.

The car I just bought is a very noticeable color, so people quickly notice it.

85. 余る (あまる) To remain / To be left over

I made dinner using the leftover ingredients.

This test was easier than expected, so I had more time left over than I thought.

86. たまたま By chance / Coincidentally

I happened to meet someone on the street and ended up going to an izakaya with them.

I went to see a movie and coincidentally ran into an acquaintance.

87. 誘う (さそう) To invite

I invited her to the movies, but she said she was busy and declined.

I was surprised when a not-so-close friend suddenly invited me to their house.

88. 疑う (うたがう) To doubt

I doubted what he said, but it was true.

I'm still unsure whether this plan will succeed.

89. 繋がる (つながる) To be connected

If this project succeeds, I think it will lead to a big opportunity.

If you learn this technology, it might lead to better job opportunities.

90. 断る (ことわる) To refuse

It's important to give an honest reason when refusing.

I plan to refuse because I don't want to go to this event.

91. 試す (ためす) To try / To give something a try

I tried several methods, but I couldn't find a good one.

You won't know the result until you try.

92. 抱える (かかえる) To hold in one's arms / To have problems

I had so many problems on my own that my health started to deteriorate.

She couldn't tell anyone that she had debt.

93. 頼る (たよる) To rely on

Don't push yourself too hard alone, try relying on your friends.

I was really happy when my friend relied on me.

94. 離れる (はなれる) To be apart / To be away from / To separate

It's lonely being apart from my family while in class.

I want to leave the city and live a peaceful life.

95. 意外と (いがいと) Surprisingly

This year's JLPT was surprisingly difficult, and I couldn't answer much.

My apartment is in Tokyo, but surprisingly, it's cheap and spacious.

96. 感覚 (かんかく) Sense

Whenever I come to this place, I feel a strange sensation.

When traveling for a long time, sometimes I lose track of what day it is.

97. さっそく Immediately / At once

Today, I want to immediately open the iPhone I just bought yesterday.

When I came to Japan, I immediately tried eating ramen.

98. 目的地 (もくてきち) Destination

If you use the train, you can get to the destination faster.

Since the destination is a bit far, I decided to rent a car.

99. 印象 (いんしょう) Impression

He was different from the impression I had when I first met him; he was an interesting person.

First impressions are important, so I always try to wear clean clothes.

100. 雇う (やとう) To employ

I don't like being employed, so I became a freelancer.

Many hotels are starting to employ foreign staff.